Attention: Atty. Justina Callangan
Director
Corporate Finance Department

Re: Pilipinas Shell Petroleum Corporation's (PSPC) 17-C Reports on Recent Vacancies in the Board

Dear Atty. Callangan:

We are writing in response to your letter dated 5 February 2016 notifying us that the above-captioned reports submitted are in violation of SRC Rule 17.1(A)(iii)(2)(c) and requiring us to amend said Report. Having received your letter on 29 February 2016, we have until 07 March 2016 to respond to your letter.

We reply, as follows:

1. Actual Date of Resignation of Mr. Carlos Araneta

Please be advised that we have not received any written resignation from Mr. Araneta following his verbal advise to the Board of his intention to resign in the 18 August 2015 Board Meeting. He also failed to attend the 8 December Board Meeting. We also circulated the Minutes of the Board Meeting dated 18 August 2015 where we noted his intention to resign verbally to all directors and there were no objections made thereto by any of the directors, including Mr. Araneta.

Thus, to ensure continuity in the Board, the Chairman considered Mr. Araneta's verbal advise to the Board last 18 August 2015 as his formal resignation notice to pave the way for the Nominations Committee to convene and commence the process for his replacement. Otherwise, apart from the difficulty of attaining quorum, the Board would continue to miss out on opportunities for a new director to provide fresh inputs and unique perspectives during Board Meetings.

There was also no special reason given by Mr. Araneta for resigning, apart from having been a member of the Board for so many years.

Given the above circumstances surrounding Mr. Araneta's resignation, we could only file the 17-C Report in January 2016.

In any case, we have attached herewith the amended 17-C to reflect clearly that we did not receive a written resignation letter from Mr. Araneta.

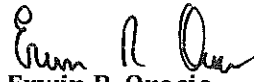

2. Late Reporting of the Demise of Mr. Cesar Bautista

We recognize that we have filed the 17-C Report on this subject late. We were faced with heavy load that usually comes at the end of the calendar year, which includes a review of corporate governance practices that may be improved and the clamor to find new directors to fill the 2 vacant seats and schedule the Nominations Committee Meeting to kickstart said process.

Thus, we humbly request for your leniency. Rest assured that our commitment to comply with the Securities & Regulations Code as well as our adherence to best practices in good governance remains strong.

Thank you very much for your kind reconsideration.

Yours Sincerely,

Erwin R. Orocio
Corporate Secretary
