(i) Required Amendments for Companies filing a Registration Statement with the SEC and Listing Application with the PSE

(1) Seventh: Denial of Pre-Emptive Rights

A stockholder's pre-emptive right refers to the right to subscribe to a company's issues or disposition of shares of any class in proportion to his shareholdings. The Listing Rules of the PSE requires that pre-emptive rights be expressly denied in a company's Articles of Incorporation prior to listing in the said Exchange.

(2) Twelfth: Lock-Up Requirements

The PSE Listing Rules likewise require that a company applying for listing shall expressly state in its Articles of Incorporation said Exchange's Lock-Up Requirements, to wit:

- Existing stockholders who own an equivalent of at least 10% of the issued and outstanding shares of stock_of the Corporation shall refrain from selling, assigning or in any manner disposing of their shares for the following periods after the listing of the shares:

- 180 days – If the Corporation meets the track record requirements of the PSE; or
- 365 days – If the Corporation claims an exemption from the track record and operating history requirements of the PSE.
- If there is any issuance or transfer of shares (i.e. private placements, assets for shares swap or a similar transaction) or instruments which lead to issuance of shares (i.e. convertible bonds, warrants or a similar instruments.) done and fully paid for within 180 days prior to the start of the offering period, and the transaction price is lower than that of the offer price in the IPO, all shares availed of shall be subject to a lock-up of at least 365 days from full payment of the aforesaid shares.

(ii) Governance Improvements Expected from Listed Companies / Correction of Clerical Errors

Eleventh: Clarify Mechanism to Replace President during Mid-term Vacancy and Update Shell Group Definition

The revisions are intended to correct certain typographical errors committed in previous amendments and keep the original language in the Article, which states that in case the position of the President becomes vacant, such vacancy shall be filled by a nominee of the Shell Group.

Corrolarily, there is a need to clarify the definition of the Shell Group as used in said Article.

(b) Amendment of the By-Laws

(i) Required Amendments for Companies filing a Registration Statement with the SEC and Listing Application with the PSE

(1) Section 7, Article III: Election of Independent Directors

Public and publicly listed companies are required to elect independent directors who are independent of management and free from any business or other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with their exercise of independent judgment in carrying out their responsibilities as such directors. The election of Independent Directors is expected to assist the Board in carrying out its responsibility to exercise objective and independent judgment in managing the affairs of the company and substantiate proper checks and balances. Independent Directors likewise bring a different perspective to the various issues brought to the Board for discussion and final decision, which is expected to broaden the capability of the Board to provide strategic guidance to the management.

As regularly disclosed, the Corporation is already compliant with this requirement and currently has two (2) independent directors sitting in its Board, namely: Messrs. Fernando Zobel de Ayala and Cesar A. Buenaventura. For purposes of listing with the PSE however, the Corporation is required to provide an express provision on the election of independent directors in its By-Laws.

(2) Section 8, Article III: Creation of Board Committees

Public companies and those listed in an Exchange are required to create at least the following three (3) Board Committees to ensure compliance with good corporate governance:

- a) Board Audit Committee
- b) Nominations Committee
- c) Compensation & Remuneration Committee

While the Corporation, being a public company, is already compliant with the requirement to create these Board Committees, regulators would need to see an express provision in its By-Laws on the creation of these committees and others that may be required in the future or deemed necessary in accordance with best practices in corporate governance.

The main functions of these Committees as well as their compositions may likewise be found in the Corporation's Manual on Corporate Governance.

(3) Section 8, Article II: Closing of Transfer Books or Fixing of Record Date

The By-Laws provision on Closing Transfer Books or Fixing Record Date shall assist both the Corporation and the stockholders in determining which stockholders are entitled to notice of or vote at any stockholders' meeting or receive payment of any dividends declared. More importantly, this clause is aligned with current PSE Rules on the matter.

The proposed rules states that the stock and transfer books shall be closed for at least twenty (20) days immediately preceding the pertinent meeting or the Board of Directors shall set a Record Date instead.

(ii) Governance Improvements Expected from Listed Companies

(1) Section 1, Article II: Date of Annual General Meeting

The date of the Annual General Meeting shall be moved from 3rd Tuesday of April to 3rd Tuesday of May to reflect current practice. The new date is likewise aligned with the timelines required for the preparation and filing of certain reports such as the Annual report and Audited Financial Statements.

(2) Section 3, Article II; Section 3, Article III; and Section 6, Article VI: Electronic Notice and other Forms of Notice of Meetings of the Board and Stockholders

To keep up with current technology and reflect current industry trends and best practices, the Corporation would like to adopt transmission of Notices of Meetings to its directors and stockholders via electronic means or any form of publication (i.e., newspaper publication; posting on company website, etc.)

To implement the foregoing, the stockholders will be required to also provide the Corporate Secretary with their electronic email addresses to help ensure that they receive company notices/disclosure in a timely manner.

(3) Section 2, Article III: Conducting Board Meetings via Tele/videoconferencing

SEC Memorandum Circular No. 15-2001 allows the conduct of Board Meetings via tele/videoconferencing. Pursuant to the said circular and related SEC Opinions, the Corporation would need to provide an express provision in its By-Laws adopting this practice to ensure that Board Meetings conducted via tele/videoconferencing are valid.

(4) Section 1, Article IX: Delegation to the Board of the power to Amend By-Laws

To allow flexibility in terms of adopting new By-Laws provisions as may be required by law or deemed necessary in keeping with corporate governance best practices, it is proposed that by the affirmative vote of the stockholders representing at least two-thirds (2/3) of the Corporation's outstanding capital stock, the By-Laws may be amended, repealed or replaced with a new one by the Board of Directors as it may deem proper. Said delegated authority to the Board may be revoked by the affirmative vote of the stockholders representing at least two-thirds (2/3) of the Corporation's outstanding capital stock.

Item 18. Other Proposed Action

The approval of the stockholders on the following matters will be taken up:

(a) The Corporation's Initial Public Offering ("IPO")

In compliance with Section 22 of Republic Act No. 8479 or the Downstream Oil Industry Deregulation Act of 1998 and pertinent rules of the Department of Energy ("DOE") and in recognition of the satisfaction of the following conditions critical to a successful IPO, the Board of Directors has unanimously approved the Corporation's initial public offering of common shares in its special meeting held on 13 June 2016:

- (i) Favorable equity market conditions,
- (ii) Favorable financial performance of the Corporation, and
- (iii) Favorable capital structure of the Corporation.

2. Delegation of authority to the Board of Directors to determine the final terms and conditions of the Corporation's IPO, including, but not limited to offer structure, offer size, timetable, offer price, appointment of deal parties, determination of over-allotment option or such other relevant terms, and to implement any transaction in connection with the securities offering without the necessity of obtaining further approval from the stockholders;
3. The filing of the Registration Statement and other required documents with the SEC and the listing application with the PSE; and
4. The confirmation of the authority of the Board of Directors of the Corporation and such other persons as are duly authorized by them, to sign, execute, deliver and/or amend, for and on behalf of the Corporation, any and all documents, contracts, agreements, certificates, undertakings and instruments relating to the Corporation's IPO and do or cause to be done any and all acts pursuant to or required by the Corporation's securities offering.

Ratification of the foregoing matters shall require stockholder approval of certain mandatory amendments to the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation, as further discussed in Item 17.

Item 19. Voting Procedures

Each voting share of stock entitles its registered owner as of the Record Date to one vote to approve the Minutes of the Annual General Meeting held on 13 May 2016.

The vote of stockholders representing a majority of the issued and outstanding capital stock entitled to vote shall be required for the approval of the following matters:

1. Corporation's securities IPO; and
2. Amendments to the By-Laws.

The vote of stockholders representing two-thirds (2/3) of the issued and outstanding capital stock entitled to vote ("super majority") shall be required for the approval of the proposed amendments to the Articles of Incorporation.

Voting will be by poll. Upon registration at the special stockholders' meeting, each stockholder will be given a ballot to enable him to vote in writing on each item or proposal in the Agenda. A sample of the ballot (subject to further revisions for the convenience of the stockholders) is provided for reference in the sample proxy attached herewith.

Management is not soliciting your proxy. This form is provided only for your convenience.

Nonetheless, each stockholder may vote viva voce or by other means of communicating his approval or objection during the meeting.

All votes will be counted and tabulated by the Office of the Corporate Secretary with the assistance of the Stock & Transfer Agent. The Management may opt to engage the external auditor of the Corporation, the accounting firm of SyCip Gorres Velayo & Co. (Ernst & Young Co. – Philippines), to validate the poll results.
